DOC Mission Statement

"The mission of DOC is to improve public safety."

Duties

This position provides first level supervision and is responsible for the overall operations for the Food Service Department at the Washington State Penitentiary where 200,000 - 290,000 meals are prepared monthly. This includes consolidated ordering for all three kitchens (East Complex, West Complex and the Minimum Security Unit) and the efficient use of state resources; as well as planning, maintaining inventories of food and supplies.

Will maintain accountability of state resources of an annual budget of $2,743,000.00 for goods and services, by assuring product inventories for daily use and limiting waste or surplus of products. Inspects quality of foods prepared and prepares reports or summaries for review by the Consolidated Food Manager.

This position is also responsible for scheduling regular and intermittent employees, attending to overtime needs and vacation approval/coverage. Scheduling will be rotated between the three Food Managers every six-months. Will complete staff payroll for the timekeepers. Will conduct performance evaluations and implement corrective/disciplinary action if needed. Will be in charge of the Juvenile Justice Center (JJC) program in every aspect of needs: daily monitoring programs and audits.

Will be responsible for monitoring the HACCP program as a high priority to ensure offenders, A/C's, Correctional Officers, and Sergeants are trained in these processes by doing monthly drills.

Will act as the first level respondent for food related grievances and responds to offender kites.

This position is located in a correctional facility setting, supervising and training A/C Cooks and offenders in a kitchen area where offenders have access to knives, sharp utensils, and kitchen equipment.
